ATLANTA-FULTON PUBLIC LIBRARY SYSTEM

CIRCULATION POLICY

Section 1. Confidentiality of library records:

- 1.1. The Atlanta-Fulton Public Library's privacy and confidentiality policies are in compliance with applicable federal, state and local laws.
- 1.2. The Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System maintains the confidentiality of borrowing and library usage records according to Georgia Law. (Georgia Code 24-9-46)
- 1.3. The Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System keeps only the information needed to conduct library business. We do not store a record of what patrons have read and returned on time. We do maintain a record of overdue material, overdue fines, and damaged and lost material for an indefinite period.
- 1.4. Library staff access borrower information only for the purpose of managing library material, such as keeping account information current, checking out books or filling requests.
- 1.5. Staff will discuss accounts only with the account holder or, in the case of minors, with the child's parent or legal guardian.

Section 2. Library cards:

Library cards give the account holder free borrowing privileges at all of the Library System's thirty-three circulating branches and, in the case of the Auburn Avenue Research Library, free access to research materials. Library cards are required to reserve meeting rooms at library locations.

- 2.1. Items checked out on cards and library fines and fees are the responsibility of the cardholder until the card is reported lost or stolen.
- 2.2. The Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System issues free library cards to:
 - 2.2.1. Residents of Fulton County and Atlanta in DeKalb.
 - 2.2.2. Property and business owners in Fulton County and Atlanta in DeKalb
 - 2.2.3. All school students enrolled in Fulton County and Atlanta in DeKalb.
 - 2.2.4. All teachers employed within Fulton County and Atlanta in DeKalb and registered home-schooling parents in Fulton County and in Atlanta in DeKalb. These patrons receive a card which entitles them to borrow up to fifty items at one time.
 - 2.2.5. Organizations or businesses in Fulton County and Atlanta in DeKalb, as long as a letter of authorization is provided and an authorized individual signs the application.
 - 2.2.6. Current employees and retirees of Fulton County Government, municipalities situated within Fulton County, the Fulton County School System, the Atlanta Public Schools and immediate family members of those individuals.

CIRCULATION POLICY

- 2.3. Courtesy cards are issued to visitors and temporary residents within Fulton County and Atlanta in Dekalb.
- 2.4. Non-resident fee: Non-residents may purchase individual borrowing privileges for $40.00 per person per year.
- 2.5. Responsibilities of parents and guardians:
 - 2.5.1. Library cards for children under 13 are issued with the signature of a parent or legal guardian.
 - 2.5.2. Parents and legal guardians are responsible for their child's use of the library.
 - 2.5.3. The Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System collections embrace a variety of viewpoints in all formats, including the Internet, and may contain material that is found controversial. We encourage parents and guardians to be involved in the decisions their child makes when using the Library System and the Internet.

Section 3. Privileges:

- 3.1. Cardholders in good standing may borrow up to the following:
 - 3.1.1. 25 items total per card with most card types
